NEARLY EIGHTY-EIGHT PER CENT OF LOWELL'S MANY STUDENTS LEAVE HER PORTALS TO GO ON TO INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER LEARNING. FOR THIS REASON WE HAVE SET THE THEME OF THIS BOOK AS COLLEGE LIFE, WE HAVE ENDEAVORED TO TAKE THOSE UNIVERSITIES WHOSE ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN CERTAIN FIELDS ARE ESPECIALLY NOTABLE. THE GREAT UNIVERSITIES OF THE PACIFIC COAST, THEIR CAMPUSES AND A FEW OF THEIR ACCOMPLISHMENTS IS THE THEME OF THIS "RED AND WHITE,"

The Sermon on the Mount, sat in moraics, beautifies the Memorial Chapel at Stanford University, Palo Alto, California.

GOVERNMENT

STANFORD UNIVERSITY WAS FOUNDED IN 1881

by Leland Stanford, a Californic Governor and United States Senator. Its graduates have figured prominently in Government affairs. A few of the more notable are Ex-President Hoover, former Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, Senator McNary of Oregon, Ex-Governor Suzzalla of Washington and Ex-Governor Judd of Hawaii.

DEDICATION

TO THE MEMORY of this hard-working man whose mind and whose heart were so filled with the manifold duties of the boys' athletic department which he so faithfully guided. • To the memory of this splendid coach upon whose desk are stacked the trophies that Lowell has won as the result of his expert teaching in football, in crew, in tennis, in swimming. • In the name of the thousands of boys who learned from him in the fifteen years between nineteen twenty-five and nineteen thirty-nine, the principles of a clean mind, a stout heart, and a strong body. • In the name of all who have known and loved him—Claude L. Kitchen, Lowellite and friend, we reverently dedicate this sixty-fourth volume of our "Red and White".

OFFICERS!

Under the leadership of William Joslyn, Lowell's football center and co-captain, the student body enjoyed a busy and victorious term with many school rallies and social functions. The job of preparing school rallies and presiding over the Board of Directors meetings are two of the most important duties that a student body president must perform.

The office of girls' vice president was capably filled by Barbara Don this term. She conducted all the girls ralies, including the main event of the term, the Girls' Jinx, and ably assisted president Josyln with preparations for school rallies. Barbara usually introduced the girl vice presidents of the visiting high schools to help promote good fellowship between the students. As leader of the girls, she led them in cheering for their team.

Under the guidance of former yell leader, Robert Curley, the student body card sales reached a high mark, with ninety-six per cent of the students buying them. Robert was in charge of managing the card stunts at the football games, and, this term, had a arger number of students taking part in the stunts than usual.

Albert Garcia, the quarter back of Lowell's football team, served as student body secretary. It was his duty to write the minutes of the Board of Directors meetings and to keep the records in order.

BARBARA DON Vice President

ALBERT GARCIA

NOEL REVOURN Yell Leader

After being an assistant for two consecutive terms, Noel Reyburn was elected head yel leader. He kept school spirit high, leading the school yells and songs. Noel helped to manage the card stunts at the games. With a large rooting section cooperating, he lead the football team to many victories and made school railies more enjoyable.

Elected editor of the "Red and White" this term was Bruce Sutherland. He spent the semester preparing a journal of which Lowel could be proud, which is no easy task. In the past, Bruce has worked as co-senior editor and financial manager. It is an editor's job to see that all school activities are written in the journal, and that the book is finished as scheduled.

Robert Rockwell rose from a reporter, to the office of Circulation Manager, to editor of the "Lowell." Through his efforts the current events of Lowell were made easier to follow. A new feature article this term was "Lowel, Day by Day." Bob strove hard to make the "Lowell" a good school paper, and succeeded through his hard work.

With one and a half years experience to her credit, Evelyn Baier was elected cafeteria manager. She was in charge of the cafeteria in general, and other social events including all of the courtesy lunches served to special guests visiting at Lowell,

In the Board of Directors meetings, school affairs and financial matters were carefully discussed

The fine work of Lowell's student body officers has made this term an especially pleasurable one. They deserve all our thanks and gratitude.

EYELYN BAIER Cafeteria Manager

THE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

An official, city-wide come was held this term for the best essay by a high school student on "Thanksgiving For America". Our English teachers selected the composition that in their opinthe essay from Lowell High School.

I might have written. I quote it, therefore, with permission of the writer, Robert Twohy:

"I, an American, thank God for many things:

be forced into battle lines.

may read the lines, and not between them.

"I thank God that I may state my religion, and need not make a state my religion.

but rather eleven men with a footbal.

"I thank God that the only concentration camp I know is the classroom.

year: the first day of April, and the last day of October.

"I thank God that soft chimes, and not shrill sirens, will sign off my radio programs.

"I thank God that my country is a gateway, and not a dead wall.

"I thank God that my neighbors and I live in America—and that America lives in us."

PREP SERVICE MEN

Twenty-three boys, selected for school service composed the Spring 1939 Scroll and L and finished one of the organization's most successful seasons. Besides serving on nine committees, the Scroll and L joined with the Shield and L to direct the Freshman Reception. Repeated demand performances receipted over one hundred dollars, which was given to charity. James Moore was the capable leader this term.

JEAN LEVINSON President

PREP SERVICE GIRLS

Under the able leadership of Jean Levinson the twenty-two girls on the Shield and L proved themselves worthy of the honor of membership bestowed upon them.

At the beginning of the term the Shield joined with the Scroll and L in giving one of the most comical Newcomers Receptions ever given at Lowell.

The girls also assisted in the creanup drive and helped the P.T.A.

PREP SCHOLARS

With a membership of one hundred and eighty-nine students, the Lowell chapter of the California Scholarship Federation completed its fifth year of existence. Mr. S. W. Moore and Mr. L. B. Barnes served efficiently as the society's faculty advisors. Carol Christian was elected president; Barbara Barmann, vice president; and Phyllis White, secretary. On October 14, twenty-six delegates represented Lowell at the thirteenth district convention. Dr. Franz Schneider, faculty advisor of Phi Beta Kappa at the University of California and speaker of the day, praised Lowell for its fine

BRUCE SUTHERLAND

Energetically undertaking the job of publishing this 64th semi-annualissue of the "Red and White" was Bruce Sutherland, a very capable editor who had worked on the semi annual for four terms, and was last year's financial manager. His devoted efforts, together with the assistance of Mrs. V. T. Kuhnle, experienced faculty advisor, were instrumental in the success of the journal.

The two associate editors, Jean Levinson and Elena Thomas, proved to be a great help. Elena, who has been on the staff for several terms, as literary editor, did the writing for the division pages. Jean Levinson, another staff veteran, was senior editor. She had the difficult task of

Synopsis

This is the story of young Dr. Sumner and his attempts to cure a petent, Budd Woodbridge of a bad case of love disappointment, and jealousy. The object of Budd's affection. Grace Tyler prefers the company of another man, Preston De-With to Budd's. The results of this condition lead him to the brink of a nervous breakdown. In anxiety his mother brings him to Dr. Sumner, The doctor discovers the nature of the case, assigns him to his nurse. Virginia Xelva, cuts him off from his friends, and prescribes a spartan existence. as a cure for him. Believing he connot destroy Budd's love for Grace he decides he must make Grace fall in love with Budd. This he fine y accomplishes reversing the conditions and making Grace jeolous of Budd. The doctor suddenly realizes he is in love with his nurse, and the play ends happily with Budd marrying Grace, and the doctor marrying his attractive nurse.

returned on straight football, with August Angeli packing the ball. Other good players here were Holman, Irwin, Swanson, and Thompson.

October 20—For the first time in many years the lightweights won three consecutive games, this time against Washington 12-0. The first score came on a dead-man play to Gardner and the second on a line plunge by Montrose. October 27—In their game with Galleo the boys were bewildered by passes and razzle-dazzle football, being down 0-14. Stars of this game were Strei, Lind, Simmons, and Wigmore. November 3—Here the boys met an equally strong team where they field 6-6 against Mission. Starring in this game were Angeli, DeForde Gardner and M. er. November 10—Closing their season against Balboa the "Goofs" were downed 0-7. Starring in this game were Wigmore and DeVoto.

Beside the pentathlori meet, Coach Elmer Harris held a six day race. The track team was divided into four classes; Class AA, Class A Class B and Class C. The winning team for Class AA was composed of Cliff Wakefield, Vaskin Tashin, Lawrence Fried for Class A, Maurice Cohn, Art Schumacher, James Shepard; for Class B, Joe Nussbaum, Ken Schussel, Jack Whit-Henry Fukuii. The perpetual pentathlon cup was won by George Canfield.

In the track meet with San Mateo. Gene Clark won the mile in the fast time of 4:40 which is exactly six seconds off the city record. With a little more experience, Coach Harris expects Clark to break the city record.

Chinn, center and Sanford and Whitesides, guards, with Raeder, a valuable sixth man. The remainder of the squad was composed of Fukui, Lipton, Oden that, and Tanabe. The Cards displayed a varied type of offense, being able to defeat any type of defense they met. The fact that Lowell teams are drilled on fundamentals and plays is one reason that the mechanical Cards are always on top of the basketball loops.

SHIN KICKERS

With undaunted hopes in their hearts the Lowell shin kickers began the 1939 season in quest of the championship, only to fall to the lower bracket of the leaque. Starting the season in a non-eague battle against a rentlentless Pescadero squad, the "Indians" captured a close victory

October 3, the Papooses, suffered their first league defeat at the hands of the Gailleo Lions, one to nothing. This game was a heart-breaker to lose since the Lions tallied rate in the fourth quarter climaxing a desperate last power drive. Meeting Polytechnic next on the schedule in their traditional game, the Indians fought hard to tie an irresistible, well coached squad. The fact that The Parrots scored first aroused the Indians' temper, which thus accounted for the well-placed tally late in the second quarter, by wing-man Ed McNamara.

by a scant one goal. The Indians had, surprisingly enough, resisted the Pirate attack for three quarters, when the Balboa wing-man powered his kick over the white line for the winning and tion among the players. In their next and closest game of the season, the Indians outwitted and outplayed a strong Commerce team, only to be rewarded by a one to one tie. The Buildogs the Lowed team possessed, and also established a cooperative equally balanced squad. From this game Coach Harris determined his first team which consisted of forewards: Jake Battat and last, but not by any chance least, goal guard Robert Friend. Led by forwards "Jake" Battat and Alex Viadimiroff this team overpowered and defeated Washington, and thus succeeded in winning their first triple contest, two to one. Both Indian scores came in the first quarter, the result of two drives. The last game with Mission was called off as a just remembrance to the memory of the late Coach Kitchen. Although out of the race. Coach Harris expects that Lowell will be a tough team to down in next year's championship contest.

APPRECIATION

The earnest work of many people went into the production of this 'Red and White". Those to whom special appreciation is due are: Mr. Kenneth Elder and Mr. Raymond Peterson of the Walter J. Mann Co., photo-engravers: Mr. Robert Abarta and Mr. William Carlie of the Borden Printing Co., Inc.: Mr. and Mrs. John Doherty of the Fisher Photographic Studio. • Without Mr. Bernard Shirar, Rolfe Croker George Kitagawa, Theodore Pohlmann and Shigeru Yasuda this journal would have been sadly racking in snapshots of school rife. • Without the courtesy of the "Examiner" we could not have printed our colorful football action pictures. • Certain students have loaned reference material that has helped us greatly and I take this opportunity to thank them. . To Mr. Curts and Mr. Tucker, our thanks is due for their watch of our finances. • To Miss Harrison and Mrs. Miller we are indebted for their many office services. • To Mr. Ga. agher we acknowledge the many times we have used his typing room. • Mr. Stephens, our principal, Miss Lacoste and Mr. Monroe, our vice principals: Mrs. Kuhnle, Mr. McCord, Miss Herrmann, our faculty advisers, gave their advice and cooperation at all times. • To these, and to the loyal members of our literary, financial and art staffs

I am deeply grateful for their aid. Without it, this journal could not have been published.
